Office Memorandum

Subject:

Meeting held by Special Secretary (YM) with CPIOs in Committee Room No. 122 on 10.04.2019 at 5.30 P.M to review pendency of RTI Applications.

The undersigned is directed to say that a meeting was held by Special Secretary (YM) with CPIOs, NITI Aayog in Committee Room No. 122 on 10.04.2019 at 5.30 P.M to review pendency of RTI Applications. During discussion in the said meeting, it was brought to the notice that most of the CPIOs are taking RTI applications very casually and furnishing information which is irrelevant, opaque, incorrect and incomplete with no elaboration. Special Secretary and CEO have taken cognizance of it and advised that following instructions may be issued to all the CPIOs for strict compliance:

1. All CPIOs are required to examine the RTI applications carefully and furnish timely, relevant, transparent, correct and complete information to the applicants, which must be fully elaborated in a positive manner.
2. All the CPIOs are required to examine and supply the direct information to the applicants in the same language as used in the applications within the period prescribed under RTI Act 2005. In case, they feel it necessary to send the information through RTI Cell, they may submit the information to RTI Cell within 15 days of receipt of the applications.
3. Information pertaining to Vice Chairman and CEO office may be supplied by CPIO, RTI to the RTI applicant based on the inputs received from the CPIO of the Division/Vertical dealing with the subject matter.
4. Director (RTI) shall be the Nodal Officer who will hold periodic meetings with CPIOs and deliver his suggestions for early disposal of RTI application according to the instructions as narrated above.

It has been made clear in the meeting that non compliance of the above instructions by any CPIO will be viewed very seriously.

All the CPIOs in NITI Aayog are requested to ensure that instructions as given above by Special Secretary during the said meeting are complied with strictly.
