

Economic & Finance-I

1.1	Particulars of its organization, functions and duties(Section 4(1)(b)(i)	The Economics & Finance-I Cell at NITI Aayog serves as a knowledge and policy catalyst, anchoring analytical and evidence-based inputs to guide India's economic trajectory. Its core duties involve producing forward-looking macroeconomic projections, undertaking comparative economic assessments to inform policy choices and evaluating the fiscal health of the states and trade performance of the nation. The Cell contributes through research, development of indices, such as the Fiscal Health Index, and publications like the Trade Watch Quarterly, while also preparing high-impact working papers on structural challenges. Through rigorous research, modelling, and collaborative workshops, the Cell plays a role in supporting strategic economic planning, enhancing state capabilities, and shaping India's long-term growth agenda.
